

Dobble Neal wins

TULSA, Okla. — Olathe karate fighter Dobble Neal last night captured his preliminary bout prior to the PKA U.S. Super Welterweight championship fight with a unanimous, 89-82, decision.

According to his instructor, Bob Boggs, Neal won the three-round fight in the last round when he used a jump spin and back kick that broke the nose and shut the eye of his opponent, Tulsa product Rashad Aziz.

Another area fighter, Tim Stonequist, Wellsville, had his three-round preliminary fight cancelled when his opponent failed to show.
