THIS TO THIS

THIS COULD HAPPEN TO ANYONE!

Bully attacks are especially directed at the weak and fearful. Children who are not physically inclined, who are introverted and shy, these are the children who are the victims of bully attacks.

Judo-trained students rarely get into fights, because they are secure in their knowledge of self-defense and realize the tremendous advantage they have over the untrained person.

However, when a Judo student is forced to fight, he can fight to win without needless violence. He retains self-respect and the respect of others.

For Christmas

"The Gift Of A Lifetime"

PARENTS:

Have you thought of giving your children the gift of confidence, courage, a quick agile body and the ability to protect themselves in any situation?

A course in Judo is a gift that will not wear out or be discarded in a few months, but one that will enhance their lives now and later in their adult years.
